FOUR BOUTS ON THE PROGRAMME FOR WEDNESDAY'S SHOW.

Eddie Santry and Adam Ryan in Main Contest-Even Money Bet on Corbett-McGovern Fight.

The programme arranged by the Indianapolis Athletic Club for its first spring sparring carnival, to be held at the Cyclorama rink next Wednesday evening, is by far the best that has ever been prepared for one evening's entertainment in the boxing line in this city. Careful attention has been given by the matchmaker in selecting the contestants for all four bouts-the two four-round preliminaries, six-round semiwind-up, and the ten-round main contest, and all of the bouts promise to be interesting. The two principal bouts will bring out-of-town fighters together, while the two preliminaries will bring four of the cleverest local big-mitt colony into the squared

The main bout will be between Eddie Santry, of Chicago, and Adam Ryan, of Philadelphia. Santry is well known to the Indianapolis boxing fraternity, as he appeared here last summer in two contests, and was considered one of the cleverest boxers that ever appeared before an Indianapolis crowd. Followers of ring events know Adam Ryan by reputation. He was introduced at the Empire late last summer, when he seconded Billy Rotchford in the latter's contest with George Monroe. Ryan bested all the best men in the featherweight division in the East before he came During the past year he has me of the top-notchers in his class in the West and has won many battles. Ryan and Santry have met twice before, the bouts resulting in draws, so evenly were they matched. They fight about the same style and both are aggressive and clever at in-fighting, and as they will box under straight rules, hit in clinches and protect emselves in the breaks, a lively contest is expected. Before the sport was stopped in Chicago efforts were made to match the two men again to settle the question of supremacy, but they never got together since they fought their last draw. Both men have trained hard for the coming contest here and will enter the ring in the best of condition and about evenly matched

The semi-wind-up will bring together George Quinn and Johnny Ruse, of Chiwho are classed as the top-notcher: in the lightweight class in that city. They will enter the ring at 105 pounds and will go six rounds for a decision.

The first preliminary of four rounds will be between Lawrence Clark and Al O'Bannon, both of Indianapolis, and the second preliminary, also of four rounds, will be between Tommy Carroll and Willie

The four bouts will furnish twenty-four rounds of clever boxing. The rink will be arranged so that every seat in the buildng will be an excellent one. The ring wil elevated four feet and will be placed in the center of the polo flour. Seats will placed on the floor around the ring. The netting used at the polo games will be renoved so that there will be an unobstructed riew from all parts of the building. The advance sale of seats will open at the City Club, opposite the rink, to-morrow morn-

Betting on Young Corbett and Mc-Govern Has Changed.

Both McGovern and Corbett are training hard for the coming battle, the former at Croll's gardens, Alameda, and the latter at Sheehan's Tavern, not far from San Francisco. Both are well pleased with their quarters. McGovern says that in his former fights his training never exceeded two weeks, but that for Corbett he will have systematic preparation. It was McGov-Such exercises as will increase his speed.

A Grocer's Plaint.

BOXING AT CYCLORAMA and ordered a few cheap trifles. As the salesman waited on her she wandered from counter to counter, eating ravenously expensive candies, expensive biscuit and expensive cheeses. "I guess she'd have taken a cigar if she smoked," the salesman said on her departure, and then he went on:
"It's a sin the way people turn our place into a free lunch joint. In a shameless manner they eat anything that they can lay their hands on. In fact, among grocers it's an axiom that anything left open is customers' prey. What they seem to like best is cheese—the 30 and 40-cent cheese. They are partial to prunes, too. You see that keg of olives in the corner? I saw a woman eat twelve olives out of it yesterday. Sweet cakes and biscuit please them -leave plenty of cakes and biscuit out if you want to do a good trade. Here in this store there is fully $4 worth of food devoured a day by customers. The thing is expected. If we put our goods under cover our patronage would forsake us. Hence I say, why not establish a free lunch-a lunch, say, of cheese, olives, pickles, pie, cake and prunes? Advertise it, too, with a big sign out front: 'Free Lunch! Lunch with Every Purchase.' That, I think, would be a drawing card."

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 14 .-The Butler basketball team reversed its poor luck of last night by defeating Crawfordsville Business College team this evening in a fast game, with a score of 28 to 19. Exhibition Season Will Open April 1-Improvements at the Park-Brush Back from New York.

In two more weeks the men who will try for position on the Indianapolis team will report for duty. They have been ordered to be in Indianapolis on March 30, and the players will be quartered at the Imperial Hotel during the training season. When the roll call comes twenty-two men should be on hand to answer to their names. Little time will be lost in preliminary practice, as Manager Watkins has arranged a schedule for spring games which will give the new men a chance to show what is in them. The schedule of exhibition games is the best that has ever been arranged for Indianapolis, and before the championship season opens the Indianapolis enthusiasts will have an opportunity of seeing three National and three American League teams. Mr. Brush was also asked about a story to the effect that Barney Dreyfuss proposes to spring a sen-sation in the near future in the form of an announcement that another syndicate is being formed to buy out John T. Brush's interest in the New York club. Mr. Brush laughed and said: "Stranger things have happened." He would not explain, however, whether there was any truth in the story. He said he expected to spend much of his time the coming summer in New York, and would personally look after much of the interests of the New York Nationals.

President Bement has called a meeting of the Central League for March 25 at Marion for the purpose of adopting a playing schedule. The president has appointed Jouett Meekin, Ed Cline, Thomas J. Senior and James Kenna as umpires. The most startling piece of news from the president's home at Evansville is the announce ment that he is in baseball for the sport it affords and he only agreed to accept the presidency in order to break a deadlock at the last league meeting. Mr. Bement had the presidential bee humming about his hat long before the league was finally organized and the deadlock at the

LOCAL DEALERS GETTING READY FOR APRIL DISPLAY.

First Week in Next Month Will Be "Automobile Week"-Many Fine Cars Will Be Exhibited.

Indianapolis automobile dealers are makgreat preparations for "Automobile Week," the first week in April. All the dealers interested in the coming show are engaging in a friendly rivalry, and the public will secure the benefit of seeing the big displays of autos which will be brought to this city by the dealers. The lack of a suitable building in which to hold this year's show made it necessary for the dealers to devise another plan, and several weeks ago it was agreed that all the dealobstinate stand to have himself elected ers should have their "spring openings" the first week of April.

Instead of one show, there will be four big ones, and each one will be worth a visit to see. The local dealers have been preparing for "Automobile Week" for two months. Carl Fisher, of the C. G. Fisher Automobile Company, went to the New York show to secure attractions for his special show, and Frank Staley, of the H. T. Hearsey Vehicle Company, made a trip to the Chicago show to engage attractions and secure the latest ideas for the display to be given by his firm. Conrad Mueller has also secured many special features which he will display during the week, and S. W. Elston will convert his place on Ohio street into

Carl Fisher will give his show in his new building on North Illinois street, just north of New York street. The building is now in course of construction, but it will be ready for occupancy the latter part of this month, and he will open it to the public during automobile week. Fisher has prepared for a handsome display of big touring machines, both American and French styles, and in addition will show many other machines used for road and city use. His building will be occupied with an immense display of fine machines.

The entire lower floor of the H. T. Hearsey Company, on Monument place, will be used that week for the display of automobiles of the latest design and also some unique styles. The carriages and other turnouts will be stored in another part of the building, and the lower floor will be handsomely decorated for the week. Mr. Staley says the firms he represents will send their latest styles and finest machines to Indianapolis for display during the Conrad Mueller and Mr. Elston also promise many novel features, and will have on exhibition many fine cars, both for touring purposes and for general use. Manufacturers not represented in this city will be given space in the various stores in the city. The Indianapolis dealers expect to sell many machines during the week to local people, and also to prospective buyers from other cities in the State. It is expected a larger number of machines will be sold in Indianapolis this year than in any previous year. The week will open with a grand automobile parade.

Fisher to Race Kiser.

Carl Fisher, of Indianapolis, will devote much of his time this summer to racing. One of the most important events in which he will participate will be a match race with Earl Kiser, of Dayton, O., to be given at the automobile races at Lexington, Ky., July 4. They will race for a big purse, best two in three heats. The first heat will be at a mile, the second at three miles, and the third, in case it is necessary, will be either at three or five miles, to be deter-mined by toss. Fisher is having a new racing machine built, which will be 100-Fisher is now interested in forming a circuit of six or eight cities for the purpose of holding automobile races this summer. In case the circuit is formed Henri Fournier, the French champion, will be seen here in August.
